FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: February 5, 2014. Art lovers from Wilmington, DE, to Kennett Square and Springfield, PA, turned out to see Frank DePietro's recent works in "Contemporary Realist Paintings" at Beauty Art Gallery in Edgmont last weekend. DePietro's works explore the rural fields and manicured topiary gardens of our area, plus the surreal beauty of water lily flowers, leaves and reflective water surfaces so admired at Longwood Gardens.

"I think DePietro has excellent use of color and perspective. His field and meadow landscapes are reminiscent of the Brandywine school. His water lily painting's colors and composition border on surreal," commented local journalist and writer Robert Woodman McSherry of EdgmontTownship.

A local designer remarked "Frank's paintings are vivid in color, expression, clarity and depth. You want to touch the lily. It's like being there in person. Art is a personal expression of your interests and aesthetic connections. Art can create the mood and be the inspiration for the space," said Jenny Van Dusen, Providence Design Interiors, Willistown.

"Contemporary Realist Paintings" continues at Beauty Art Gallery through March 8, 2014. Open Tuesday through Friday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. For more information, visit www.beautyartgallery.net, or call 610-353-4569.
