Newtown Square, PA – October 6, 2015 – Beauty Art Gallery is calling for artists, 18 years of age and older, to submit pieces for their 4th annual “Small Treasures” exhibition, juried by Deena Ball. “Small Treasures” will feature a variety of artwork including paintings, drawings, photographs, collage, mixed media, and other works suitable for wall display. Interested artists can submit entries at the gallery, located at 3857 Providence Rd., Suite 200, Newtown Square (Edgmont Township), on Friday, November 13 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturday, November 14th from 10 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The “Small Treasures” exhibition will begin Wednesday, November 25th and feature a week of public voting for the “People’s Choice” award, to be presented with other awards at the public “Red Dot” reception scheduled for 5 to 8 p.m. on Saturday, December 5th. The gallery will award cash and merchandise with a cumulative value of more than $1,400 to winning artists during the opening reception.

Deena Ball is a nationally recognized landscape painter known for her innovative use of watercolors in combination with textured ground and specialized surfaces. She earned a BA in Art History and Studio Art from Colby College in Waterville, ME. She continues to study at PAFA and Tyler School of Art. Ball's work has been covered in Watercolor Artist and annual publications of the watercolor book, Splash. She is a signature member of the Philadelphia Watercolor Society, the Baltimore Watercolor Society, as well as a juried member of the Pennsylvania Guild of Craftsmen.

“Small Treasures” will run through January 8, 2016.

The prospectus is available online at <http://beautyartgallery.net/2015Treasures.html>, at the gallery, and by email to info@beautyartgallery.net. For more information, contact gallery owner Paula Jackson @ 610-353-4569.
